

Domestic Violence Challenges

Race

Gender

Policy

Arizona

Women
Coercive

Gap

29th
of 50

for LGBTQ Policy Protectionss

41st
of 50

for Women's Health and Rights

8th
of 50

for Gender Pay Gap

Coercive Control is an action employed by abusive partners to reduce economic autonomy of their loved ones, in attempt to keep them confined.

In the US,
39.7%

of women experience
Coercive Control

In Arizona

Married Households

Female Households

Male Households

In Arizona

Black Only

White Only

American Indian

Asian
Only

Pacific Islander